Two little Kittens

Two little kittens, one stormy night,
 Began to quarrel, and then to fight;
 One had a mouse, the other had none,
 And that's the way the quarrel begun.

"I'll have that mouse," said the biggest cat;
 "You'll have that mouse? We'll see about that!"
 "I will have that mouse," said the eldest son;
 "You shan't have the mouse," said the little one.

I told you before 'twas a stormy night
 When these two little kittens began to fight;
 The old woman seized her sweeping broom,
 And swept the two kittens right out of the room.

The ground was covered with frost and snow,
 And the two little kittens had nowhere to go;
 So they laid them down on the mat at the door,
 While the old woman finished sweeping the floor.

Then they crept in, as quiet as mice,
 All wet with the snow, and cold as ice,
 For they found it was better, that stormy night,
 To lie down and sleep than to quarrel and fight.

Letter to the Council about Recycling

Dear Councillor, (line 1)

I'm _____ to ask you to start recycling Tetra Pak cartons. (line 2)

I've noticed that other councils are providing this service, (line 3)

but for some reason, you aren't. Why not (line 4)

Tetra Pak cartons are a very common way of packaging (line 5)

food and drink, so there are a lot of these cartons about, (line 6)

We always have lots of empty Tetra Paks at the end of (line 7) lunch time in the P6 classroom. I've checked with people (line 8) from the Tetra Pak company and they said that their (line 9)

cartons are able to be recycled. (line 10)

Let me know what your plans are and when you propose (line 11) to start collection of Tetra Pak cartons, because this is a (line 12) very important issue. I look forward to your response. (line 13)

Thanks a lot for your time. (line 14)

Charlotte (line 15)

The Cow

The friendly cow, all red and white,
I love with all my heart:
She gives me cream with all her might,
To eat with apple tart.

She wanders lowing here and there,
And yet she cannot stray,
All in the pleasant open air,
The pleasant light of day;

And blown by all the winds that pass
And wet with all the showers,
She walks among the meadow grass
And eats the meadow flowers.

Town Mouse and Country Mouse

Now you must know that a Town Mouse once upon a time went on a visit to his cousin in the country. He was rough and ready, this cousin, but he loved his town friend and made him heartily welcome. Beans and bacon, cheese and bread, were all he had to offer, but he offered them freely.

The Town Mouse rather turned up his long nose at this country fare, and said: "I cannot understand, Cousin, how you can put up with such poor food as this, but of course you cannot expect anything better in the country; come you with me and I will show you how to live. When you have been in town a week you will wonder how you could ever have stood a country life."

No sooner said than done: the two mice set off for the town and arrived at the Town Mouse's residence late at night. "You will want some refreshment after our long journey," said the polite Town Mouse, and took his friend into the grand dining-room. There they found the remains of a fine feast, and soon the two mice were eating up jellies and cakes and all that was nice.

Suddenly they heard growling and barking. "What is that?" said the Country Mouse. "It is only the dogs of the house," answered the other. "Only!" said the Country Mouse. "I do not like that music at my dinner." Just at that moment the door flew open, in came two huge mastiffs, and the two mice had to scamper down and run off. "Good-bye, Cousin," said the Country Mouse, "What! going so soon?" said the other. "Yes," he replied;

"Better beans and bacon in peace than cakes and ale in fear."
